

Significance of English Communication.

Mr. Anjesh, an excellent motivational speaker spoke about the significance of English Communication. He holds a record for knowing most of the words in English dictionary. He shared many good ways to improve English vocabulary. He insisted on watching English news everyday, reading English newspaper and books and finding the meanings of unknown words from dictionary will help one to speak in English confidently. Being an active wild life conservative person, he explained the importance of wild life by showing many wild life distraction videos. He also offered to guide the students in trekkings.