

“NOBLENESS OF PARAMEDICAL PROFESSION”

Speaker : Mr. Chinnasami, Founder Chairman of Agni Steels Private Limited, Erode and South Africa

Mr. Chinnasami Founder Chairman of Agni Steels Private Limited, Erode & South Africa and chairman of "OlirumErodu" foundation Erode, gave the presidential address for our inaugural function.

He explained very well about the importance and the nobleness of paramedical profession. The current scenario of patient to paramedic ratio is far too behind what WHO has recommended. There is a huge vacancy for this profession in which one can excel.
